

Only a Mistake.

Captain Burton, somewhat noted as a traveler, wrote a book several years ago about the Mormons, and Harper Bros. published it for him. He asserts at the near the commencement of his work that "the word Mormon had become a word of fear." The American portion of his readers simply laugh at the assertion. He was at the particular time of writing that sentence, beyond doubt, seated upon the balcony of a St. Louis hotel, looking at Mormonism through a smoked glass. Had he said a word of curiosity for their civil customs; and a word of disgust for their spiritual ideas, so far as polygamy is concerned, he would have simply told the truth and nothing more.

His desire "of seeing Utah as it is and not as it is said to be," appears to have been utterly lost, when he accepted the services of a member of the "Deseret University," to fill him in making up his manuscript. The idea of any gentleman writing up Mormonism from a three weeks observation in Utah, will be properly appreciated by any other gentleman who has visited the city of the Saints.

Instead of presenting Mormonism as it was then, he has simply presented the statements prepared by one of the fraternity, and flatters himself that he accomplished the object of his mission.

The American people never feared the word "Mormon" in any shape, form or manner. They care nothing about the word. It is as good as any other so far as that is concerned.

They do, however, fight the infamous heresies hid beneath the word—always have fought them and always will fight them in the future, until they are abandoned and utterly and completely destroyed. They labor to have the people stand free before the world and released from a one man power. The church leaders fear these results, and proscribed everybody and everything calculated to accomplish these results. This is why they forbid the people to read the Vedette. They are afraid to let the truth have access to the firesides of the people.

Capt. Burton simply made a mistake. Better men have made graver errors.

THE GRAND ANNIVERSARY BALL.—The Y. M. L. Association has decided to have, in conjunction with the officers at camp, a grand military and civic ball on Monday evening next, in honor of the anniversary of the battle of Bear River, Jan. 29, 1863. Ample arrangements are being made to make this the grandest affair not only of the season, but of the Territory. The commodious hall of the Salt Lake House has been engaged, and mine host, LITTLE, guarantees the most perfect arrangements.

The price of admission tickets has been placed at eight dollars, and they may be had at Gilbert's store on application to Frank Gilbert, Esq., of the committee.

Invitation cards are being issued, and no gentleman will be admitted unless he shall have received one from the committee.

Members of the Association, officers, and others who may desire their friends to be invited, will please notify Mr. Gilbert or some member of the committee.

Dancing will commence at 8 o'clock, and a joyous time may be anticipated.

THE UNITED STATES has one square mile of coal to every fifteen miles of territory; Great Britain one to every thirty miles of surface; Belgium, one to every twenty-two miles, and France one to every two hundred miles of surface.

THE HICKMAN CASE.—On Wednesday, the case of the People vs. Hickman, came on for argument before the Probate Court, and the whole day was exhausted in perhaps the most elaborate legal discussion ever held in that court.

The argument was concluded at 7 P. M., and the case taken under advisement by Judge Snow. As the authorities cited were not only numerous but also voluminous, and the questions involved of great importance, it is presumed that the decision will not be rendered for several days. The question involved is as to the jurisdiction of the civil and military tribunals "in time of war."

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.]
New York, Jan. 26th.

The Herald's Fort Fisher correspondent of the 20th says: Gen. Paine went out yesterday in force, to reconnoitre the position of the enemy. He found them as before, in force about two miles from our extreme line, and after a severe skirmish, in which we succeeded in capturing fifty prisoners, Gen. Paine retired.

Yesterday as a dispatch boat was proceeding up the river, to a point farther up than any we had, she was opened on by the guns of Fort St. Philip, on the south side of the river. Several shots were fired, some of which took effect.

A Savannah correspondent of the 18th says: Sherman's army is still there resting on its well earned laurels, but very busy re-fitting for another march.

The Herald's Washington special says the city is filled with peace rumors.

A correspondent states that a member of Jeff Davis' Cabinet made the direct proposition, or inquiry, of Blair while in Richmond, to the effect that if the rebel government were willing to give up the contest, would the United States Government forego emancipation, confiscation, etc., and permit them to dispose of their cotton and leave the country for Mexico, with the understanding that no obstacle should be placed in the way of private soldiers of the southern army, at least all who may desire, to follow their leaders into that country. If that would be consented to, they would bind themselves to drive the French out of Mexico and assume full control of the government, and if necessary, pledge its ultimate annexation to the United States.

Blair stated in reply, that the North would not in any contingency abandon the idea of emancipation; but our Government was willing to be merciful so far as confiscation was concerned.

New York, Jan. 26th.
A private letter says a proposition for the rebels to make St. Marks, Florida, a blockade running port will not succeed, as Lieut. Rookwell has three vessels there and is able to put a stop to such operations.

The Richmond Enquirer says: It is thought the existing Cabinet have pretty nearly exhausted its intellectual resources without achieving any very brilliant or illuminated individual fame, and a new set with fresh ideas and wide awake characteristics is especially desirable at the present time.

The Anglo-blockade runners have already been informed of the fall of Fort Fisher. The Owl having run in and made her escape out again on the night before the evacuation of Fort Caswell.

New York, Jan. 26th.
A dispatch from Wilmington, N. C., says of the operations in that vicinity: A large part of the combat is yet to come. The Yankees are elated with success, and will attempt to beat back our troops. With reinforcements continually arriving and the position of our lines assumed, we trust his next effort will be futile. One and both armies are fortifying in their respective positions.

and his work may be looked for at any time.

The Raleigh Progress of the 20th says: Persons who left Wilmington on the 18th says the rebel forces fell back to within eight miles of the city. Gen. Terry had demanded the surrender of the place, giving Bragg to the 19th to answer. The removal of all public property is going on as fast as possible, and we doubt not that every preparation is made to fall back. Persons from there say all in confusion at Wilmington, and the general impression was that the place would go, and that most of the people would remain.

The Times special says: The Richmond papers, on Monday, substantially confess the evacuation of Wilmington, and that Gen. Terry is beyond a doubt, now in possession of the city.

The Times' City Point correspondent telegraphs that the idea at headquarters concerning the rebel iron-clad demonstration on the James, was to create an excitement to cover the evacuation of Richmond. The correspondent accumulates daily that the rebel leaders would like to get out of that city.

The Herald's City Point dispatch says: There were four iron-clads, that one was entirely destroyed, another disabled, and the other two were aground, and were being fired upon by our batteries, each shot from Fort Parsons striking them severely.

The Augusta Constitutionalist says: The city is filled with fugitives from South Carolina. It would appear that a panic had seized on the people of that state, on the approach of the Union army, and that they are ready to leave everything to save their lives.

Louisville, Jan. 25th.

The authorities are advised that Monday's gang, this evening, killed at Simpsonville, thirty negroes who were in charge of one thousand head of government cattle. No particulars.

Fortress Monroe, Jan. 23d.
The bark Clifton, from Pernambuco, reports that the privateer Shenandoah has destroyed several American merchantmen along the coast of Brazil, in consequence of which, vessels bound to the United States were obtaining British registers so as to enable them to sail under British colors.

Buffalo, Jan. 25th.

The American Hotel caught fire this morning. The weather being intensely cold prevented the firemen from working to any extent. One building on Main street, near the Hotel, was blown up by order of the Mayor. This partly arrested the fire, but it is feared it will extend to Pearl street. The loss by the fire is estimated at over a half a million.

Washington, Jan. 25th.

The Star says, dispatches received here state that yesterday morning at two o'clock a rebel fleet of five vessels of the Richmond squadron, so long in being prepared, come down the river to destroy our depots and works at City Point. High water caused by the freshet enabled them to pass the obstructions which had been placed above City Point for the better protection of the place. A battle quickly ensued between the rebel fleet and our nearest battery, in which one of the rebel vessels was blown up and instantly entirely destroyed, while two others were so badly damaged by shot and shell as to compel them to seek safety by a speedy flight back in the direction of Richmond accompanied by the other two which escaped damage. Admiral Farragut left here yesterday evening for the scene of this action. It is understood he will at once assume naval command there.

New York, Jan. 25th.

The steamer Eagle, with Havana dates to the 21st, has arrived. News had been received from Mexico that Gen. De Herbal had made a reconnaissance to Oaxaca, where he was held upon, when he fell back to Etla to organize for an attack on the place, which was to be made on the 27th. It is said Perfirio Diaz has a force of 8,000, and 65 pieces of artillery, and it was believed in Havana that his force was double this, and is better provided than any of the Liberal armies. The old Mint at Oaxaca is working night and day coining gold and silver, brought there by churches to aid Diaz.

The new Consul General of the Mexican Empire for the Island of Cuba, has demanded the archives of the Consulate of the old Consul, who refused to deliver them up, insisting that his Government is still in existence.

The steamer Harriet Lane, lately called the Lavana, was destroyed by fire at Havana on the 18th.

A report was received at Havana from Key West, that the blockade runner, Delight, one of the most successful of the fleet, had been captured and taken into that port.

The Col. Lamb, a very fast iron steamer, left Havana on the 21st. It was generally believed that she is to become a rebel privateer.

New York, Jan. 25th.

The Herald, editorially, says: The probabilities are great that Seward will have a mission to England.

The Tribune's special says: Indications point strongly in that direction.

It is reported that seventy vessels hitherto in the Wilmington blockade, will be sent to increase the blockade off Charleston, Galveston and other ports.

Advices from the Shenandoah Valley states that a small body of rebels have made their appearance below Woodstock.

The Richmond Despatch of the 23rd contains the following: It was reported yesterday that Gen. Price had captured Fort Smith, Ark., with a garrison of 2,000 men; but the report was not officially confirmed.

J. A. Seddon has resigned his post folio in the war department.

Mr. Blair, Sep., the peace commissioner, has returned to this city. Nothing has transpired as to the object of his mission; but of course it has reference to peace negotiations, and this has grown out of his former visit. He is the guest of Capt. Hatch, at the residence of the latter.

Hon. H. S. Foote left the city yesterday, by the Fredericksburg train, en route for Prince George, Ala.

Letters of the 17th from Charleston harbor say that three rebel iron-clads are distinctly visible at the mouth of Cooper river, while a large number of men are busy about the forts. Deserters report that the rebels also have torpedo boats ready for service, and will make a fight in case of any attempt on our part to get up to the city. They are putting new obstacles in the harbor, and our boats have lately been quite successful in finding and removing them.

Heber C. Kimball at the Tabernacle in April last, delivered the following. It is but an exposition of the every day balderdash, disgusting ribaldry, and flimsy, which escapes this demagogue's stomach on every occasion that he is allowed to open his mouth. The Mormon Historian followed him, and defies the Government of the United States:

We shall now have some fun, (laughter.) I have enjoyed unusual good health the past two years. It is because I have kept the commandments of God. When you go to a bookstore I want you to buy the Book of Mormon and the Book of Doctrine and Covenants, (related several anecdotes about the early history of the church, which caused much laughter.) Other men have started new churches besides Joseph Smith, but they have all failed; where are they now? Why, they are in Hell, or soon will be, (laughter.) We are now living in one of the most eventful days that we ever known. The Lord is now withdrawing his spirit from the face of the earth, and before six years shall pass away, every nation will be at war, (ridiculed the missionary enterprises of Christian churches.) The stars and stripes are said to be emblems of freedom and Christianity. When I read of the raids of Union armies destroying millions of dollars worth of property and leaving women and children to starve, I say God save us from such Christianity as that. I want you to be ready; have your arms ready; your ammunition ready; your knapsacks ready, so that we shall not be unprepared for our enemies. I want you to take care of yourselves. I was present when the doctrine of polygamy was written, as it was revealed to Joseph Smith. Thomas is present who wrote it, and it is a true doctrine. Amen.

Mr. George A. Smith, (historian.) When the temple is finished it will accommodate nine thousand persons. It is designed as a permanent building that will last a thousand years. When completed, Solomon's Temple will be a small affair compared to it. The time is not far distant when the pavement around the temple will be paved with gold; when the principal use we shall have for gold will be to pave the streets. While in the City of Washington, I understood Senator Douglas to say that the United States did not intend to let us build that temple, and I gave him to understand that they could not prevent us from doing it, (laughter.)

INDIAN MASSACRE IN THE OWENS RIVER REGION.—A correspondent of the Esmeralda Union, writing from Montgomery District, gives the following particulars of a recent Indian Massacre in that vicinity:

On the 30th of December last, as the expressman who connects with Parker, at San Carlos, was on his trip to Visalia, he observed that the house of Mr. McGuire, on the Hayway meadows, lying between Little and Owen lakes, was on fire. On stopping to ascertain the cause he found the bodies of Mrs. McGuire and her son, aged about eight years. They had evidently just been killed by the Indians, as Mrs. M. was still living, and the arrow which caused her death was taken from her before she breathed her last, although too insensible to give any account of the matter. Two men, who had been working on a ditch in the neighborhood, in McGuire's employ, have been missing since. McGuire was at Bend City when the news of the tragedy was brought in; so intense was the excitement, that one of the whites, unable to combat his feelings, drew his six shooter and killed a friendly Indian. The latter circumstance is much to be regretted. At Bend City, and other points on the river, the people have organized with the intention of killing, or in fact exterminating the whole Indian race in the neighborhood of the Owens river country at least. Three Indians were killed by the whites near the Black Rocks since the above occurred. The citizens of Owensville have organized a Home Guard, and are prepared to co-operate with the citizens of Bend City. At this point we apprehend no danger, as the Indians in our neighborhood are known as those from Excelsior, and are friendly.

SOME surgeons at London have succeeded, by scientific operations, in giving sight to persons born blind. There are touching descriptions of the surprise and confusion of those to whom the world is first opened.

THE New York testimonial to Captain Winslow will amount to $25,000.

We have on our table a communication signed, "Q in the corner." We here repeat the announcement heretofore made, that the Vedette will publish no communication that is unaccompanied by the real author's name in full. A writer may assume any name he chooses to appear in public, but his name must be known to us, ere his production can appear in our columns. If "Q in the corner" will comply with the above, we will cheerfully publish his communication; and none are more anxious to make these statements public, than we.

CORPORAL Patrick Conway of Co. A, 1st Inf. Bat., at this post, has resigned from the G. W. C. T., of California, his commission in the I. O. G. T. as W. D. We are happy to hear of the appointment, as a more worthy man, or a more firm, staunch and zealous Good Templar is not numbered among our acquaintance. The position which S. E. Becker held, and which he so dishonorably disgraced, has been now filled by one whose honor and integrity we know to be irreproachable.

This type of ours was in a decidedly "superfluous strain" yesterday. Our first local notice, should have appeared with "W. I. Appleby, Esq." minus the Mr. We sincerely trust that the gentleman referred to, will extend his charity and credit the double handle to our mistake, and with no intent.

YESTERDAY morning we were visited with another snow storm. The sleighing never was better, but, wood, wood, is the cry.

THE meetings of the degree members of I. O. G. T. will in future be held regularly on Saturday evenings in their new hall.

SUPERINTENDENCY OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., January 25, 1885. NOTICE is hereby given that under an order of the President of the United States, dated October 3rd, 1861, the "Entire portion of the Valley of the Utah River within Utah Territory, extending on both sides of said river to the crest of the first range of contiguous mountains on each side," was directed to be set apart as an Indian Reservation. That by the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved May 5th, 1864, (see chapter 77 of the laws of 1864, pamphlet ed., page 63) the Utah Valley Reservation is "Set apart for the permanent settlement and exclusive occupation of such of the different tribes of Indians of Utah Territory as may be induced to inhabit the same." Therefore, notice is hereby given, under instructions of the Department of the Interior transmitted to me through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, "That all white settlers must forthwith remove from the Utah Reservation," and that on the opening of spring "all persons found therein unlawfully," "that is, without a license to trade, a passport, or permission of the proper Indian authorities, will be removed," and that the laws of the United States, applicable to Indian Reservations, will be enforced. EXTRAORDINARY CHANGES OF FORTUNE.—Among the many and surprising changes fortune delights in working, the elevation of a Turkish slave to the rank of a European ambassador, perhaps, one of the most wonderful. "There was a time," writes a Berlin correspondent of a London paper, "when Madame Benedetti, whose arrival with her husband, the new French ambassador here, is expected daily, occupied no more exalted position than that of a hand-maiden in some Ottoman slave-dealer. A Greek by birth, she was kidnapped, carried away, and sold into captivity during the sanguinary struggle which attended the liberation of her country. Thus it was that, a mere child, she was exposed for sale in the slave market of Cairo, and passed over into the possession of M. d'Anastati, a countryman of hers, and Swedish Consul-General in Egypt. The gentleman, whose good luck threw in her way, gave her an excellent education, and eventually bequeathed the whole of his immense property to the child whom he had adopted years ago, and had learned to love. While her benefactor was still alive, Edith d'Anastati, whose original name remains unknown, married M. Benedetti, the Consular Agent of France at Alexandria. Within a few days she will be one of the first ladies at Berlin, taking rank above all others, the Queen alone excepted.

"Here, Mr. Constable, take this witness out and tell him to travel; he evidently does not understand the nature of an oath."

"You'd think different," says the boy, going toward the doorway, "if I was to give you a cushion."

PRESIDENT LINCOLN has been presented by a California hunter with a chair made of elk horns, four large antlers forming the back, which are set on the feet of the animal.

"Lena," said a little girl, pointing to the telegraph wires, "how do they send messages by those bits of wire without tearing them to pieces?" "They send them in a fluid state, my dear."

THE teachers of girl's schools are wrong to require the writing of open letters. An unsealed letter is almost inevitably half untrue.

THE true theory of woman's rights is to educate the girls thoroughly, and then let the women do as they have a mind to.

In communities where every man exercises his own will without restraint, be sure to make your own before you go out at night.

A philosopher was once consulted as to the best method of destroying one's enemy, and he gave for an answer: "Make him your friend."

"A lucky case," in the modern interpretation, means a man who got enrolled in two districts and was drafted in both.
